

CHAPEL

Holy Spirit

“Don’t be drunk with wine, because that will ruin your life. Instead, be filled with the Holy Spirit, singing psalms and hymns and spiritual songs among yourselves, and making music to the Lord in your hearts. And give thanks for everything to God the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. And further, submit to one another out of reverence for Christ.”

Ephesians 5:18-21

“Be filled with Holy Spirit.”

Ephesians 5:18

1. God’s presence is a command, not a suggestion.

“Don’t be drunk with wine, because that will ruin your life. Instead, be filled with the Holy Spirit, singing psalms.”

Ephesians 5:18

2. God’s presence is a door to a joy-filled life.

“The Spirit of the Lord God is upon Me, because the Lord has anointed Me to preach good tidings to the poor; He has sent Me to heal the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, And the opening of the prison to those who are bound.... To give them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness.”

Isaiah 61:1-3

“Enter His gates with thanksgiving, and into His courts with praise.”

Psalms 100:4

“Do not grieve, for the joy of the Lord is your strength.”

Nehemiah 8:10

“Serve the Lord with gladness.”

Psalms 100:2 (NKJV)

3. God's presence is a continual need, not a one-time thing.

"Let your heart commune with Jesus while your hands are busy with the world."

- Charles Spurgeon

We don't get as much as God gives us.

We get as much as we want.

"And further, submit to one another out of reverence for Christ"

Ephesians 5:21

4. God's presence is a must for human relationships.
