Summer At The Chapel Living In Expectation

When he had entered Capernaum, a centurion came forward to him, asking for help, "Lord, my servant is lying paralyzed at home, suffering terribly." And he said to him, "I will come and heal him." But the centurion replied, "Lord, I am not worthy to have you come under my roof, but only say the word, and my servant will be healed. For I too am a man under authority, with soldiers under me. And I say to one, 'Go,' and he goes, and to another, 'Come,' and he comes, and to my servant, 'Do this,' and he does it."

When Jesus heard this, he marveled and said to those who followed him, "Truly, I tell you, with no one in Israel have I found such great faith."

Matthew 8:5-10

1. God meets us at the level of our expectation.

"When he had entered Capernaum, a centurion came forward to him, asking for help"
Matthew 8:5

"But the centurion replied, "Lord, I am not worthy to have you come under my roof, but only say the word, and my servant will be healed." Matthew 8:8

"When Jesus heard this, he marveled and said to those who followed him, "Truly, I tell you, with no one in Israel have I found such great faith." Matthew 8:10

"Marveled" lit. Stupefied

2. When you make room for excuses, you don't have room for expectation.

"Then Jesus turned to the captain and said, "Go. What you believed could happen has happened." At that moment his servant became well." Matthew 8:13

Your words can unlock a life you love or one you loathe.

"...being confident of this, that he who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus." Phillipians 1:6

3. Come expecting.

- Live In wonder
- Get close to people with expectations
- Make room for more

“Now to Him who is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or imagine, according to the power that works in us, to Him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus to all generations, forever and ever. Amen.” Ephesians 3:20-21
